

FIREFIGHTERS' PENSIONS COMMITTEE

Draft Terms of Reference (discussed at the FPC 2012)

The Firefighters' Pensions Committee is a consultative body, representative of key business partners in the Fire and Rescue Service in England, on issues relating to the firefighters' pension schemes (and compensation scheme).

The Committee will:

- propose and consider matters of policy relating to the firefighters` pension schemes
- bring forward issues for discussion and consideration in relation to the firefighters` pension schemes
- comment and offer advice to DCLG on all proposals relating to firefighters` pension schemes in England which in turn can be brought to Ministers` attention.
