Dear Mr Burns

I must say that I am at a loss how to respond to your letter of 26 August 2013, the tone and content of which is inappropriate and erroneous.

Your claims of alleged criminality and deception are both risible and defamatory and for the avoidance of any doubt are wholly denied. However, if you genuinely believe these to be the case, then I suggest you report any such alleged illegal activity to the appropriate authorities.

I would advise you that the inferences you draw are unwarranted and denied. I would also reiterate that your pension was and remains correctly calculated, as I have already explained at length in previous correspondence.

To respond to your specific request to myself, I would advise you that as far as I am concerned, I have nothing to apologise for, nor have I engaged in misconduct.

If you seriously believe the content of your letter, you are at liberty to seek judicial determination via court proceedings. However be advised that if you decide to do so such actions will be vigorously defended and action shall be taken to recover our wasted costs from you as we have done in previous court proceedings against you.

Yours sincerely
