Dear Councillors

Clearly any response to this document is your prerogative. But I thought I should share with you a little of the background, Mr Burns has already raised various issues that have culminated in him losing a High Court case with costs awarded against him and has had his applications declined by both the Information Commissioner and the Pension Ombudsman, both original application and at appeal. Ian Young has knowledge of some of the history.

He has also made allegations to the Constabulary and Ministers of State and the ministries of Justice, the DWP, Home Office and CLG without any point being upheld..

The Chairman of the CFA has forwarded to me the document that Mr Burns has forwarded to you as Mr Burns has been declared as vexatious by the CFA and indeed by the Information Commissioner but he persists in sending frequent letters with allegations that have no legitimate basis. As a result the CFA has determined that I should be his single point of contact for both the CFA and the service ( to protect staff), in case any real issue arises. Mr Burns ignores this position. The document contains a number of inaccuracies and false statements and whilst in the past we have responded to many of his letters, our current position is to just acknowledge unless a breach of statutory duty would be involved. The adage of starving him of publicity applies. I will not be responding to this email.

If, however, you require any information in respect of these statements, then I will try and assist but in reality these are fanciful statements which neither the CFA nor LFRS would respond to other than acknowledging.

Bob
