Dear Mr G [REDACTED]

I have been asked to reply to the letter you sent to Lord Reed.

I am sorry but from the information which you have provided it seems that this Court will be unable to help you.

Yours sincerely

Dear Mr Nolan

I acknowledge receipt of the papers which you sent to this office.

I have shown your papers to Lord Hodge, one of our Scottish Justices who has confirmed that this Court does not have jurisdiction.

I am sorry but in these circumstances I am unable to issue your application.

I am sending a copy of this letter to the Respondent.

Yours sincerely

Dear Sirs

I enclose the order made by the Court granting permission to appeal on terms. As the parties will see, the intention of the Court is that, if the appeal succeeds, the respondent shall be at no greater personal liability for costs than she would have been had she lost in the Court of Appeal.

Yours faithfully

Dear Sirs,

[REDACTED]

The Appeal Panel has considered this application for permission to appeal to the Supreme Court and I enclose a copy of the order sealed by the Registrar which records the Panel's decision.

As permission to appeal has been granted, the appellant must give notice under rule 18 by 11 March 2010 if he wishes to proceed with the appeal and present a sealed copy of Form 1 for resealing.

Yours faithfully,

Robert Greenberg
